

Helping Others:

Helping others means being kind and sharing, like offering a toy to a friend. It makes everyone feel happy and cared for.

Sharing:

Sharing means giving some of what you have to others so everyone can enjoy.

Related SLO

Students' Learning Outcomes

- Understand the importance of sharing things.

Importance of Sharing:

Sharing things is very important because:

- Sharing helps us make new friends.
- Sharing makes us feel good by giving and making others happy.
- Sharing teaches us to work together.
- Sharing helps us understand and care about others' feelings.
- Sharing makes us thankful for what we have.
- Sharing helps us avoid fights and keeps everyone happy.

Things We Share:

We share different things with our friends including;

- Toys
- Books
- Stationery items (e.g., pencils, erasers, markers, notebooks)
- Lunch or snacks with friends
- Games and playtime activities
- Art supplies (e.g., crayons, paints, craft materials)
- Musical instruments
- Sporting equipment (e.g., balls, bats, rackets)
- Costumes and dress-up clothes

Related SLO

Students' Learning Outcomes

- List the things they share with others (toys, books, stationery items, lunch with friends etc.)

Helping Each Other:

At Home

- Cooking meals for family members.
- Helping with household chores.
- Taking care of elderly family members.

Related SLO

Students' Learning Outcomes

- Identify from given pictures and stories the ways in which people help each other (at home, in the classroom, in a village/city, at the time of any disaster)

In the Classroom

Helping classmates with their homework or studies.

Sharing stationery items with friends

Working together on group projects.

In a Village/City

Neighbours helping each other with tasks like gardening or repairs.

Donating clothes, food, or money to those in need.

Organizing or participating in clean-up drives.

At the Time of Any Disaster

A disaster is a very bad event that can hurt people and damage homes like flood or earthquake. People help each other in different ways at the time of disaster.

Sharing food and safe places to stay.

Helping to save others and give first aid.

Giving clothes, blankets, and other things needed.

Interdependence:

Interdependence means people need each other to live and be happy. We all help each other in different ways to stay healthy and safe.

Related SLO

Students' Learning Outcomes

- Identify from their daily lives, the ways in which people are interdependent.

Farmers grow crops and raise animals, while people buy the food and eat it.

Teachers teach kids new things, and kids learn from their teachers.

Doctors help us when we are sick, and we visit them when we need help.

The bus driver drives the bus, and passengers use the